Timber

Rationel FORMA® and Rationel AURA® are windows and doors made of timber. They are especially for those who appreciate natural timber both inside and out. They are manufactured in bespoke sizes and shapes, and are available in many colours and styles.

Rationel FORMA

Available in both double and triple glazing

Energy efficient timber windows and doors in a traditional style. The angled glazing bead and slim glazing bar configurations make it an ideal choice for country style properties.

Rationel AURA

Available in both double and triple glazing

A prize winning timber window and door range. The slim design allows for optimum incidence of light, making it ideal for modern energy efficient buildings.

Timber/aluminium

Rationel also offer a couple of ranges for those who love natural timber indoors and easy maintenance outdoors. Timber is the predominant material, with an external aluminium cladding.

Rationel FORMAPLUS

Available in both double and triple glazing

Energy efficient timber windows and doors with an external aluminium cladding. This product ranges offers the same traditional design features as Rationel Forma, but the aluminium provides minimal maintenance externally.

Rationel AURAPLUS

Available in both double and triple glazing

A prize winning timber window and door range with an external aluminium cladding. This product ranges offers the same contemporary design features as Rationel Aura, but the aluminium provides minimal maintenance externally.
